

The WRITERS CONTEST PODCAST

Mad libs episode 1: Responsibility

There once was a boy named NAME. He lived in a (n) ADJECTIVE house with his mom NAME and pet ANIMAL named NAME. One day his mom decided to go the TYPE OF STORE store and asked the boy to watch their pet while she was gone. The boy was FEELING and said goodbye to his mother as she VERB out the door. The boy wanted to clean the pet's cage so opened it. While he was VERB the cage, SAME PET NAME escaped! The boy did not notice. He ADVERB shut the cage and went to watch TV SHOW. After a while the boy heard a (n) ADJECTIVE sound. The SAME ANIMAL had gotten loose in the PLACE! He ACTION VERB around trying to catch the pet. He was very FEELING. The boy heard his mother's COLOR shoes at the front door. ACTION VERB, he shouted! He VERB and caught his pet and placed him back into his ADJECTIVE cage. His mother VERB into the home and thanked him for keeping her NICKNAME safe. SAME BOY NAME learned that he needed to be more responsible when asked to take care of something so important to his mother.

