

The WRITERS CONTEST PODCAST

Episode 4: Being Careful

Ginger was a curious ADJECTIVE ANIMAL. When she was NUMBER years old she decided to go on a walk through the ADJECTIVE woods near STORE. She set out on her adventure taking her THING and COLOR water bottle with her. She got pretty far until she realized that she was very lost! She looked DIRECTION and DIFFERENT DIRECTION and did not see anything familiar. Ginger began to VERB. About NUMBER hours went by and she realized her water was all gone. She was starting to feel FEELING. Just then a (n) ADJECTIVE plane came flying down into the forest to save her! The door opened it was her PERSON. Ginger VERB into the plane and got home safely. On her next adventure she was going to go with a friend and be more careful when remembering what steps she had taken.

