

Traditions

Extend the Discussion

- What are some of your family's favorite traditions?
- Talk about your family's heritage, what does your child know about you family history?
- Use a map to locate where your family originates from. Where is it? How far is it away from where you live now? Why is it far or close?
- Does your family eat dumplings? What are they called? How many different names for dumplings can you think of?

PBS Resources

Visit Let's Go Luna on PBSKIDS to watch videos and play games to learn about other countries, cultures, and traditions! pbskids.org/luna

Using the attached printables:

1. Talk with your child about a favorite family recipe and write it down. Start a family cookbook!
2. Have your child plan a special meal for your family.
3. Talk with your child about traditions that are celebrated in your neighborhood, what would you share with a visitor if they asked you?

_____ Name

Our Family Recipe: _____

Use this card to record a family recipe, it might be one that has been passed down from generation to generation. You can write or draw your favorite recipe here to share with a family member or friend.

INGREDIENTS

Draw pictures of the ingredients.

DIRECTIONS

Draw pictures of the steps to follow to make the recipe. Label the steps with numbers.

Large empty rectangular box for drawing and labeling steps.

I LOVE THE SPECIAL THINGS I DO WITH YOU.

Find more games and activities at pbskidsforparents.org

A Special Meal

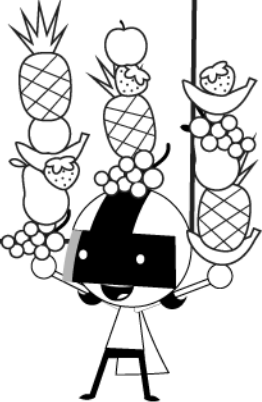

Name _____

It's your restaurant, and you are building a menu to serve a special family meal.

Write or draw your favorite things to prepare in the space below. What makes them special?

_____ 's Restaurant

Find more games and activities at pbskidsforparents.org

PBS KIDS and the PBS KIDS Logo are registered trademarks of Public Broadcasting Service. Used with permission. Made available by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, a private corporation funded by the American people.

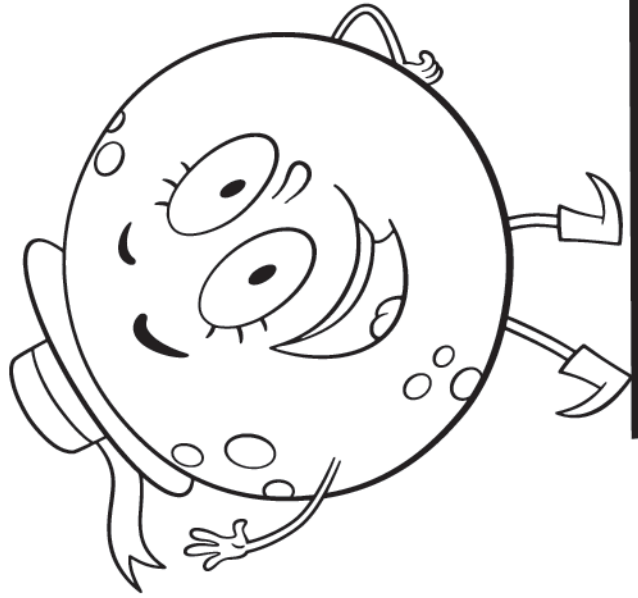

Let's GO LUNA!

A Visit from Luna!

Name _____

Circus Fabuloso travels around the world to learn about culture, customs, and traditions. If Circus Fabuloso visited your neighborhood and spent time with your family, what would you want to share with Luna, Carmen, Andy, and Leo?

Find more game and activities at pbskidsforparents.org

Funded by:

LET'S GO LUNAI © 2018 LATW Productions Inc. PBS KIDS and the PBS KIDS Logo are registered trademarks of Public Broadcasting Service. Used with permission. Corporate Funding for LET'S GO LUNAI is provided by Target. Made available by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, a private corporation funded by the American people.