

The WRITERS CONTEST PODCAST

Episode 1: Patience

Philip was a (n) ADJECTIVE kitten who lived with NUMBER older brothers. They were all very strong and smart, and could play FAVORITE SPORT very well. Philip would ride his COLOR bike to his brothers' games and practices all the time. He was very small though, and could not play with them. He felt very NEGATIVE FEELING, but still supported his brothers. Every TIME OF DAY he would ask his mom when he was going to grow as big as his brothers. She would push the plate of VEGETABLES closer to him and say, "Just be a patient kitten." That next DAY OF THE WEEK Philip woke up and his PIECE OF CLOTHING did not fit anymore! Then he tried to put on his DIFFERENT PIECE OF CLOTHING and that did not fit either! He VERB to the mirror, and to his surprise, he had grown to be as big as his brothers! He VERB with joy and could not wait to play his favorite game with his brothers that day!

The WRITERS
CONTEST
PODCAST

