Episode 2: Taking Turns

Once upon a time, there was a princess that lived in a beautiful kingdom. This princess's name was Laila and she lived in the kingdom of (insert your favorite season). There were lots of animals and flowers throughout the Kingdom. The castle was (insert vibrant color) . In her castle, Laila had a lot of princess duties. Because of her duties, she didn't have time for friends. Whenever she was at home she had to take (insert school subject) classes, and had to do a lot of (insert chore name). Every single day she would stare out the windows of her bedroom and wish for a friend. One day, Laila had to go shopping for her father, King (insert funny boy name). He wanted her to go to the local bakery and buy some (insert your favorite bakery item). As she made her way out of the castle walls, she passed the kingdom's local school. Seeing all of the children playing made her very sad. All of the other children were playing (insert your favorite sport) and didn't pay any attention to her. She walked away and sniffled. Once she entered the bakery, the smell of vanilla hit her nose. She walked over to the counter and rang the shiny bell. It almost sounded like (insert favorite nursery rhyme). It chimed through the entire store and she jumped at the noise. "I'm coming" shouted a tiny girly voice. Laila watched as a young girl around her age appeared from the back room. This girl had (insert your hair color) hair and dark blue eyes. She smiled as she saw Laila. "What can I help you with today?" she asked. Laila told her what she wanted and asked her what her name was. "My name is Dawn" she replied. While Dawn was waiting on Laila, they started talking about (insert your favorite animal). They found out that they had the same favorite animal! Laila smiled and asked Dawn what some of her other favorite things were. She found out that Dawn loved (insert your favorite candy bar) and (insert your favorite toy). "I have some of those back at the palace!" Laila cried. She then asked Dawn if she would like to come to the castle and play (insert your favorite board game). Dawn called back and asked her mother if she was allowed to go. "Only if you're home by 6!" her mother shouted back. Dawn nodded and said "Let's go!" Dawn and Laila skipped the entire way back to the palace. When they got to the palace, Laila took Dawn up to her bedroom and pulled out all of the board games she had. They sat on her (insert funny color) carpet and played a million games. While they were finishing up a game of (insert fun game to play), Dawn realized that it was probably time for her to go home. Laila and Dawn hugged, and Dawn said, "Let's hang out again tomorrow, you're my best friend now!" Laila smiled and agreed. Many hours later, Laila laid in her big plushy (insert bright color) bed and thought about her new friend. The palace did not seem as lonely now, and Laila realized how important it was to have a friend. She could not wait for tomorrow.
